

LISTEN TO YOUR HEART (a song written by Sean Johnson)

Listen up, listen to your heart. Not to the voices that are pulling you apart.
Listen up, listen to your heart.

Listen up, listen to your heart. Not to the voices that are pulling you...pulling you....
Listen up, listen to your heart.

Well, the river dried up, but it flows inside you. Love disappeared but its hiding right behind you. Listen up, listen to your heart.

What feels so far away, it's so close you can't see it. Gotta close your eyes and just to believe it. Listen up, listen, listen to your heart.

Well, it's been a windy road, I forget this often. Want to be reminded, want to make the suffer end. Listen up, listen to your heart.

Well, I've reached for the truth, and I've searched for the rule.
Gonna tell you straight, it's hiding right inside you.
Listen up, listen, listen to your heart. Ahh...Listen up, listen to your heart.
